

Dick and Patti Skweres of Star Prairie caught and released these two channel catfish in addition to many more fishing on the Red River of the North in Manitoba, Canada. The average weight of the catfish was between 20 to 25 pounds, with the largest coming in at 27 pounds and 38 inches long.

To submit your Big Shot or Big Catch, send an email to graphics@badgersportsman.com, attach your image (no camera phone images please) and include your name, the size of your Big Shot or Big Catch, and a few paragraphs about your story. You may also submit by mail to Badger Sportsman - Bigshots, P.O. Box 1186, Oshkosh, WI 54903-1186.

Steve Feavel

of Larsen hauled in this 55-inch musky of the Bay of Green Bay. The fish had a girth of 27 inches. After 50 years of musky fishing, this is his first longer than 50 inches. It was caught on a bucktail made by his son, Pat.

Elliot Stroess

of Hortonville shot his first tom during the youth turkey hunt on April 14. This Tom weighed 22 pounds and had a 9-inch beard. Elliot shot his turkey near Seymour after only being in his blind for about 10 minutes.

Badger Big Shots Submissions

To submit your Big Shot or Big Catch send an email to: graphics@badgersportsman.com

- Attach your image
- Your name
- Size of your Big Shot or Big Catch
- Tell us something about your occasion

You may also submit by mail to Badger Sportsman Send your photo and information to:

Big Shots, P.O. Box 1186, Oshkosh, WI 54903-1186

Sammy Blahnik, age 13, caught his first musky on July 21 while fishing with his dad and his two brothers on the Chippewa Flowage. The fish was caught on a jointed Rapala from a rocky shelf in shallow water and subsequently wound itself around both a stringer of northerns and the anchor rope before being netted. It was successfully released back into the water.

Conrad Eifert, age 10, of West Bend harvested this turkey near Wausau this past spring. The turkey was 19.5 pounds and had a 9.5-inch beard and 1-inch spurs.

AJ Looker of Hartland harvested this tom turkey this past spring while taking his 5-year-old son out to hunt with him for the first time.

Lori Coubal was canoe fishing with Brian Densow on a small lake in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan when she caught these two fish on the same lure, a jointed Rapala. The first is a 13-inch perch and the other is a 16-inch bass.

Xavier Krueger, age 12, caught this 54½-inch, 36-pound musky while fishing from shore on Big Green Lake on May 15. He and his great-grandfather, Gerry Seemann of Fond du Lac, released the prize catch back into the waters.

Bryan Buehler

had this buck on camera for the last few years. It was following a doe when he got within 30 yards or so. It just took one shot and he fell about 40 yards later.

Jackson Gould,

age 7, of West Allis caught this 13-inch crappie and 19-inch walleye while fishing a lake in Vilas County.

Mason Malnory

(far left), age 9, caught this 45¼-inch, 50-plus pound flathead while fishing with his dad, brother and his father's friends on the Fox River.

Bill Webster

(right), from Racine landed this 48-inch musky on July 18 while fishing with Great Day Guiding on the Bay of Green Bay. The fight lasted an hour and 15 minutes, and the fish was successfully released.

Jayden Miller

caught this largemouth bass with a fake frog in Fond du Lac on August 8.

TJ Wolf,

age 10, of Monona caught this 23.8-pound king salmon off of Port Washington in the morning of July 31.

Brody Bischoff,

age 6, of Fond du Lac landed this 36-inch musky on his very first cast on the evening of July 4 on Sand Lake near Sugar Camp. His father, Jason, helped him net his first musky before bringing it into shore to show off to mom, Grandma Kiki, aunts and uncles. Dad successfully released it back to the water.

John and Jace Burdett caught this 31-inch walleye on the Bay of Green Bay.

